acats on a majority of the trains operated. Straphangers were observed in the middle cars of a number of the subway trains during the non-rush hour period, but this seemed to be due to the fact chiefly that the middle cars are always the most crowded, as on these trains vacant seats were to be seen in the rear cars.

Good Tip for Passengers

Why it is that thousands of subway patrons profer to overcrowd the middle cars of the trains and remain standing instead of availing themselves of seats in the rear cars, is a matter New Yorkers can best explain for themselves. "It's like the escalator at Park Place," a platform guard observed. "Time and again I've seen some subway patron rush from a train in violent haste, so as to be first on the escalator, and then, gaining that advantage, stop

Two carloads of Very Fine Upholstered Furniture Third Less-- Today

The Grand Rapids Exhibition pieces of The Jameston Lounge Company, who, in acknowledging our purchase August 16th, wrote us-

"These models were made for the advance Fall showing, and contain all the new frames and coverings that we are shipping on the Fall line. We consider this the finest line of upholstered living room furniture we have ever offered to the retail furniture trade."

We bought this furniture for the August Sale, because of the slow movement of the railroad freight vice, the cars only arrived a few days ago.

It is all new and fine, of latest design, upholstered velours, tapestries, mohairs, in the choice colors and pa terns of the 1922-23 season. We could put it in regul stock and sell it at full regular prices. But we bought for our customers. And the benefit we got in price shall pass on. The goods go on sale this morning
